

University of California
San Francisco

Community Connections: Economic Recovery

Wednesday, September 15
4:00-5:00 pm

“UCSF Community Connections” is a new panel series focused on the latest issues impacting San Francisco and the greater Bay Area, and provides the community a platform to engage directly with community leaders and UCSF experts.

The first event will focus on economic recovery, workforce development, and UCSF projects and initiatives that support these efforts. Participants will hear from San Francisco’s municipal, community, and labor leaders to discuss strategies for economic recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic and more.

Panelists include:

Carmen Chu
San Francisco City Administrator

Rudy Gonzalez
Secretary-Treasurer, SF Building & Construction Trades Council

Lisa Countryman-Quiroz
*Chief Executive Officer,
Jewish Vocational & Career Counseling Service*

Ken Nim
CityBuild Director, SF Office of Economic and Workforce Development

Moderated by:

Francesca Vega
UCSF's Vice Chancellor of Community & Government Relations

To join the virtual event, please register in advance.
<http://tiny.ucsf.edu/economicrecovery>